

Thank You for Sacrificing with A Purpose

For millions of families around the world, Eid al-Adha is not guaranteed to be a celebration. It is often just another day marked by hardship, hunger, and quiet endurance. Meat can be something they have not tasted in months, and sometimes years.

And yet, through your sacrifice, that can change.

This is the power of Udhiyah/Qurbani.

Your Sacrifice Was More Than a Meal

In 2025 your Qurbani crossed continents, reaching refugee camps, rural villages, and urban poverty centers, supporting displaced families, food-insecure communities, and children without consistent meals.

A Meal They Will Never Forget

“

Ruqiyo Muuse

📍 Garabaley, Mogadishu

Ruqiyo Muuse, a 38-year-old single mother in Garabaley, Mogadishu, struggles to care for her five children while facing drought, economic hardship, and limited access to healthcare. Eid al-Adha felt like just another challenge until Zakat Foundation of America delivered fresh Udhiyah meat. For the first time in months, Ruqiyo prepared protein-rich meals her children had long missed.

One act of compassion brought warmth, dignity, and hope to a family that felt forgotten.

Khuteja Bi

📍 India

Khuteja Bi lives in a modest home in India with her husband and son's family. Celebrations were out of reach due to financial hardship.

Her husband no longer works due to illness, and they survive on her son's limited income. On Eid morning, our volunteers delivered Udhiyah meat.

With tears in her eyes, Khuteja cooked mutton biryani for the first time in years. That simple gift turned their Eid into a day of joy, dignity, and heartfelt gratitude.
